THE BYERS' CHOICE STORY

It was the late 1960's and Joyce Byers, an amateur artist with a degree in fashion design, was disappointed in what she was seeing in the stores: aluminum tinsel trees with garish blue lights. She was looking for holiday decorations with warmth that showed respect for timeless traditions and her own memories of Christmas.

The first Carolers graced the Byers' dining room table that Christmas, and they received compliments from all of the relatives. On a tight budget, Joyce knew what to make for presents the following year. A neighbor suggested taking some to a local store, where they sold quickly. The store was part of a federation of Woman's Exchanges and introduced the Carolers to other exchanges around the country. Soon a couple of dozen stores around the country were asking Joyce to supply them with Carolers.

Joyce pressed her husband, Bob, and their two sons into service to help produce the figures each autumn. It wasn't long before the Carolers overwhelmed the dining room table, where the family gathered to work together. "Every year the house would be a total wreck, and I'd say that we're never doing this again!" remembers Joyce.

But when a downturn in the economy hurt his construction business, Bob looked around and saw some potential in the Carolers. He decided to devote more of his energies to the fledgling business, and in 1978, the couple hired their first employee, and turned the garage into a workshop.

The unique appearance and handcrafted quality of the Carolers quickly gained a following. Each year, Bob and Joyce would work with their crew of trained artisans up until Christmas Eve putting the finishing touches on Carolers.

The two sons joined the company upon graduating from college and have played an important role in the growth of the firm, with Bob working in production and Jeff helping with marketing and design. "We always say that mom's hobby has gotten a little out of control," jokes Jeff.

Together, the family now oversees a team of 80 artisans in Pennsylvania who handcraft those same creations that started out on the dining room table many years ago. And although the Carolers are sold in thousands of fine gift stores around the world, the company still holds to its starting roots: producing a quality product, at an affordable price, and serving its customers and the community in the spirit of Christmas.

OUR PRODUCT—HANDCRAFTED IN U.S.A.

Due to the handmade nature of the Carolers®, items may vary slightly in color and design from product pictured. Adult Caroler: 13" tall; Child Caroler: 10" tall; Toddler: 6" tall. Most Caroler designs, with some exceptions, can be made in African American styles. There is a 2-week lead time on African American orders.

The Christmas Cardinal

Cardinals have a special significance which is why they are often seen on Christmas cards and ornaments and used as decorations on trees and wreaths. They are a symbol of faith and warmth with their bright red color in the dreary days of winter. They also symbolize hope, joy, health, rejuvenation and celebration. Folklore says that placing a red cardinal upon your Christmas tree will bring you and your family good luck throughout the coming year!

The Music Makers

This family delights in making music and entertaining their friends and family in front of a cozy fireplace during Christmas.

In Victorian times, it was common to have a piano or organ in the home. On Christmas day after dinner was served and presents were opened, everyone who was in the house would gather around the piano as someone played and sing Christmas carols.

Luck of the Chimney Sweep

Seeing a chimney sweep on the day of your wedding is good luck — but why? According to legend, in 1066, King William of Great Britain found himself in the way of an out-of-control carriage. A chimney sweep pushed him to safety. The King rewarded the chimney sweep by inviting him to his daughter's wedding and making a decree that chimney sweeps should be regarded as symbols of good luck.

Raise a Pint

Brew lovers from around the world gather each year in Munich, Germany to sample beers that conform to German purity regulations and which are brewed within the city limits of Munich.

The festival lasts for 16 days and runs through to the first weekend of October.

There's much more to Oktoberfest than beer, though. In fact, the Bavarian festival is full of flavorful food choices, including their famous soft pretzels served with a variety of mustards. If you can't make it to Munich, there are plenty of Oktoberfests in the United States where you can raise a pint!

Over 100 years old, the Nutcracker Ballet was first presented at the Mariinsky Theatre in Russia (1892).

Peter Tchaikovsky, the famous Russian composer, was commissioned by the choreographer Marius Petipa to compose the favorite Christmas ballet.

This holiday classic is the enchanting adventure of young Clara and her favorite Christmas toy, the Nutcracker, which comes alive on Christmas Eve and whisks her away to a magical kingdom.

Clara's mysterious godfather, the Drosselmeyer, joins the group in 2018.

The Harvest Home

Pay homage to the first Thanksgiving while adding a touch of harvest to your home this Autumn. In 1621, the Plymouth colonists and Wampanoag Indians shared an autumn harvest feast which is acknowledged today as one of the first Thanksgiving celebrations in the colonies. Although this feast is considered by many to be the very first Thanksgiving celebration, it was actually in keeping with a long tradition of celebrating the harvest and giving thanks for a successful bounty of crops.

Guardians of the Christmas Spirit

Kindles™—perhaps you have already heard of their work. Have you ever wondered how a snowman seems to wink just as you walk by, or how the lights on the tree seem to have an extra sparkle on Christmas Eve? Consider Kindles. How does Santa manage to fit down even the tightest of chimneys? It's our Kindles at work again, putting the twinkle in the eye of even the smallest child believing in the magic of Christmas morning. Far away in a land where snow falls in glittering heaps like confectioner's sugar, there lives a group of sprites whose vast experience, energy and spirit have given them an extraordinary opportunity. These aren't just elves, they'd be quick to point out with pride and distinction. They are Kindles, Guardians of the Christmas Spirit. Approximately 7" high.

#GP01
Glass Pickle
Ornament
(Min Pk 12)

In Germany, the Glass Pickle Ornament is always the last glass ornament to be hung on the Christmas tree. The child who finds the glass pickle ornament on Christmas morning receives an extra little gift! Packaged in glass jar.
